

Jenkins Foundation
Recent Grants

October 2011

Challenge Discovery Projects	$30,000
To support the Say It With Heart program.
Chesterfield CASA	$10,000
To support the training and supervision of new volunteer advocates.
Circle Center Adult Day Services	$25,000
To provide financial assistance and care for frail older adults at risk of nursing home placement.
Commonwealth Clinic	$50,000
To support additional clinic hours and bilingual staff to provide health care to low-income, uninsured patients in Chesterfield County.
Family Lifeline	$55,000
To support CHIP (Children’s Health Involving Parents) programming in the City of Richmond.
Fan Free Clinic	$80,000
To provide uninsured patients enhanced access to quality health care.
FeedMore, Inc.	$50,000
To support the Meals on Wheels Medical Nutrition Therapy Program.
Goochland Free Clinic and Family Services	$62,000
To provide comprehensive, quality health care to uninsured low-income Goochland residents.
Good Samaritan Ministries	$50,000
To support the Recovery Program.
Henrico CASA	$20,000
To support volunteer advocate recruitment, screening, training, and supervision.
Richmond City Health District	$55,000
To support the use of long-term contraception among patients of the Health Resources Centers, located at four public housing communities.

Virginia Dental Association Foundation	$32,000
To support the Donated Dental Services program.
Virginia Health Care Foundation	$30,000
To conduct research and provide technical assistance to prepare Richmond's health safety net providers for the impact of the Affordable Care Act.
Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care	$46,000
To expand child and family mental health services.
Virginia League for Planned Parenthood	$75,000
To continue support of the Centering Pregnancy program as it expands to serve more low-income women.
Virginia Treatment Center for Children Advisory Council	$45,000
To continue support of the Children's Mental Health Resource Center.
TOTAL GRANTS	$715,000